

The Day in Congress

YESTERDAY

Senate

Met at noon.

Approved budgets for various committees after Williams's (D-Del.) attempt to amend house rules concerning counterpart funds was blocked by parliamentary point of order.

Received various transportation bills from Magnuson.

Heard Morse oppose any continued U.S. funds for France.

Heard Javits and Keating charge Southerners on the Judiciary Committee with bottling up civil rights legislation.

Heard Stennis propose that at least half of future appointees to Supreme Court have at least 10 years experience as judges.

Heard McCarthy renew his campaign for creation of watchdog committee on Central Intelligence Agency.

Heard Scott propose ban on flat glass imports from Communist countries.

Adjourned at 7:54 p. m. until 11 a. m. today.

House

Met at noon.

Heard eulogies to the late Rep. Clive Doyle.

Adjourned at 2:10 p. m. until noon Monday.